RICHFIELD WINS AGAIN — 3 MAJOR RACES OF THE YEAR

THREE smashing Richfield victories in a row—the 500-mile Indianapolis Classic on May 30th! The 100-mile Championship Dirt Track Race at Detroit on June 9th! The 200-mile Flag Day Race at Altoona on June 14th!

At Indianapolis—Billy Arnold was 1st; "Shorty" Canton, 2nd; Louis Schneider, 3rd; Louis Meyer, 4th; Bill Cummings, 5th. And Richfield Gasoline was in all five cars—the 8th annual Richfield triumph in the World's Greatest Racing Classic!

At Detroit—Wilbur Shaw was the winner with Russell Snowberger, 2nd and Bill Cummings, 3rd. Again Richfield Gasoline was in all the winning cars!

At Altoona—Billy Arnold was 1st; Deacon Litz, 2nd; Frank Farmer, 3rd. And for the 3rd consecutive time—in 3 major races of the year—Richfield was in every winning car!

These daring drivers—with life and limb, fame and fortune at stake—pin their faith to Richfield! They know from experience that it will not fail them—that it will deliver the extra power and speed necessary in emergencies—that it will do its part to carry them over the grueling stretch to victory.

Richfield—in your own car—will give you added power and speed when you need it—and extra mileage. Why not take the choice of the champions—Richfield! You can get it at any station with the blue and gold shield.

RICHLUBE MOTOR OIL, too, played an important part in these great racing events—winning 1st and 3rd places at Indianapolis and 1st and 2nd places at Altoona.

Blues Slip To Third Place in League Race

Crippled Infield Hampers Torrance in Game with South Pasadena Merchants Sunday

Hampers by a crippled infield, which forced Manager Tansey to switch his players all around, the Torrance Blues lost to the South Pasadena Merchants Sunday by a score of 9 to 2.

Flinker started the game for the Blues, but his injured hand was bothering Fred and he lasted only about five innings, during which time the Merchants had piled up a big lead.

Freddie replaced Flinker on the mound, but the beans were already spilled and the best that Freddie could do was to hold the Merchants to no scores.

Johnny Ducassau, who suffered a severe leg cramp during the game with the Pasadena Eagles two weeks ago, was seen in the line-up but he was unable to go the whole route as his leg was still troubling him and a fast turn aggravated the injury.

Owing to their defeat on Sunday, the Blues are now in a tie with El Paso Shoes and Monterey Park for third place.

Over 300 Hungry Moose Gulp Plenty of Ravioli, Dance

Friday the 13th certainly holds no terrors for the Moose lodge of Torrance.

Last Friday night the ravioli supper and dance held in the Torrance Recreation Hall, was without a doubt one of the most successful events held by this lodge, and certainly shows that the boys are wide awake and liable to do most anything.

Imagine the embarrassment of the kitchen help when it was found that over three hundred hungry Moose and friends from Torrance and neighboring towns were clamouring for ravioli. Inexperienced as they were the boys are certainly to be congratulated on their splendid handling of the evening.

Many persons not present at the dinner arrived later for the dance, music being supplied by the Moose orchestra. This also proved a huge success.

This is the first of the monthly dinners to be given by the Loyal Order of Moose in Torrance and promises for the next event certainly seems brighter for the boys. It has not yet been definitely decided just what is next, nor will we know until everything is set for the show to go on, but we do know that it will be bigger and better everytime, said an official of the local lodge.

Vacation Bible School To Open Monday, June 30

Monday, June 30, will mark the opening of the community vacation church school in which the Baptist, Evangelical, Christian, and Methodist churches of Torrance are uniting, according to an announcement made by Miss Marie Kreysler, principal. The school will continue for four weeks and will hold sessions on regular school days from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

Beginners' department will have its classes at the Christian church; the primary department classes will be held at the Central Evangelical church. The Junior department at the First Baptist church and the intermediate department at the First Methodist church. All children in Torrance between the age of four and fifteen years are eligible to attend, and the four churches will provide ample seating capacity and accommodations for all.

According to the committee in charge a corps of teachers and helpers will be on hand to give the best possible instruction in the Bible, missionary stories, songs, and craft work. Emphasis will be given on teaching the Bible and the correlation of all child activities. The registration party, to which all children and parents in this community are urged to come, will be held Saturday, June 28 from 3 to 5 p.m. Special Friday surprises will be among the features of the school.

"It is assured that everyone attending will enjoy the school," Miss Kreysler, the principal says.

Miss Marie M. Kreysler of Long Beach, who will be principal of the Community Vacation church school was graduated from the University of Redlands with an A.B. degree. She taught one year in the San Bernardino city school system, and did graduate work at the Berkeley Baptist divinity school where she was granted a Master of Arts degree in May, 1930. Miss Kreysler has been in vacation church school work for the past eight years, and during the past three years she has been principal of four vacation schools.

TORRANCE

By Elizabeth S. Maberley

Torrance lies down by the sea. Torrance, where I long to be; Where stately eucalyptus trees Sway gently in the ocean breeze; Where four streets weave golden loom When the poppies are in bloom.

Are you weary and sick of noise? Come to Torrance, sweet home of joys, Where the whole year round is spring; And meadow larks forever sing, Where lovely lupins grow out wild, And joy trips gayly as a child.

Do you long for work to do? Torrance has a place for you. Do you seek a factory site? Oh, you'll find one here all right Where each day's so bright and clear.

You can work the whole long year. Where streams of treasure abound And gas and oil flow from the ground.

Do you wish to settle down In a live and growing town? Stay! Oh, stay—no longer roam. Here you'll find the ideal home. On a sunny, slightly lot, In a lovely charming cot, Exactly suited to your view, Where everything is grand and new.

Torrance lies out in the woods In loving little neighborhoods Fine place to make great stores of goods. In the primeval, out door woods, Guarded by our great tall trees, By fleecy, spicy pepper trees, And trees and trees—not all like these, Each tempering the Southland breeze.

Opportunity's at your door— She may call on you no more— Now, she's here—now forever gone! The golden apple has rolled on! Be swift, my friend, to heed the call. There is one chance for one and all.

Palos Verdes, near by, rise Green crowned summits to the skies— While waves of the Pacific beat, Even to our very feet.

Far to the east are mountain heights That reflect the sun's last light, Just ere the moonbeams gently fall In benediction over all.

Playgrounds in Mountains Offer Family Vacation at Small Expense

With thousands of Southern California families busy these days consulting folders and maps in an effort to find the ideal spot for their 1930 vacation, the announcement of the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department today that this season there will be room for many Southern Californians living outside of Los Angeles at that city's municipal mountain camps will come as an answer to the vacation problem for a number of local residents.

By offering complete recreational outings at very low cost, the Los Angeles Recreation Department, has made it possible for thousands of people to enjoy the joys of vacation for which they have been searching at surprisingly little expense.

Two playgrounds in the San Bernardino mountains, Camp Seeley and Radford, have already begun their summer season, and a third Camp High Sierra—is scheduled to open next Sunday in the Sierra Nevada ranges of Mono County. Because of the variety of accommodations offered, the difference in location and scenery, and long list of recreational activities carried on, these camps are able to offer mountain vacations that appeal to many different types of people.

Camp Seeley, in the West End Rim of the World district of the San Bernardino mountains, 4500 feet in altitude is distinctly a family playground. Camp Radford, located on the slope of a ridge facing Mount San Bernardino and Mount San Geronimo, two of the highest peaks in Southern California, appeals not only to family groups but to hikers and horseback riders looking for numerous trails to follow and summits to climb. Camp High Sierra is for adults who like to "rough it" a bit, or go for fishing and camping excursions into wildernesses of the beautiful Sierra country. Registrations for outings throughout the summer may be made now at municipal camp offices located in the Los Angeles City Hall.

Renowned Artists Coming for Opera Season in L. A.

The operatic bill-of-fare for Los Angeles this coming fall has just been announced by David T. Babcock, newly elected president of the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association. It discloses a rich fare of operas and the most intriguing group of singers ever heard on the Pacific Coast.

The season opens on September 28th and closes on October 11th and, as usual, will be held in the magnificent Shrine Auditorium. Leading artists for the season include: Madam Maria Jeritza, Madame Clara Clairbert, Queensa Mario, Hope Hampton, Dorothea Mannik, Elinor Mario, Benjamin Gigli, Frederick Jagel, Sidney Rayner, Edio Pizsa, John Charles Thomas, Gastano Viviani, etc.

The repertoire which has been more than a year in the planning, covers the widest range of any yet offered by the Association and is a well balanced and Haensel Und Gretel, Massenet's Manon, Salome, Mignon, Girl of the Golden West and Lucia.

The great interest in the season of opera as shown by the advance seat sale is, according to Merie Armitage, manager, a great indication of the prosperity of Southern California.

RENO, Nev. (UP)—A hitch-hiker whom H. G. Fields of Salt Lake picked up on the road to Oakland, Calif., proved to be a brother he hadn't seen since 1902.

At Indianapolis on May 30, every car that finished the race with the exception of one (tenth place) was equipped and powered with the new model "S" Winfield carburetor.

There is no equal to Winfield for power, speed, acceleration, economy and reliability. Try it and see the difference it really makes.
